International Women's Day

"BREAK THE BIAS"

The theme for IWD 2022 is break the bias and today the Housing Authority is happy to celebrate this great occasion where women are fit to lead.

Guest Speaker Dr. Erum Samreen (Head of Raiwaqa Health Centre) was present at the function and spoke on the importance of women empowerment in the organisation and at home. Great opportunity for new incoming CEO Mr. Ritesh Sing, Management team and staff members to celebrate this important day.

Resilience is key as Dr Erum highlighted the hardworking women and front liners that worked during the pandemic have done such an amazing work. Setting high goals and being ambitious is important in any organisation and any women can achieve that.

We are all responsible for breaking the bias against women not only in our work place but ensure that we have an influence on our communities, schools and universities said Dr Erum.

Dr Erum concluded by saying that if you work hard and set your goals you will be able to achieve anything.

Ritesh Singh shared the Leadership Team's aspiration together with: Every Fijian owning a home equally important is that everyone has a responsibility to take care and respect all mothers and sisters every day.

"Together we can forge women's equality. Collectively we can all #BreakTheBias
